

THE BOXERS ARE HERE.

Scannan, Nikirk, Marshall and Sullivan Arrived Last Night.

WEDNESDAY'S GLOVE CONTESTS

Will Be Largely Attended—The Programme for the Evening About Completed—A Wrestling Match to Be a Feature—All the "Pugs" are Training Hard—Last Night's Bowling—Other News From the Sporting World.

This afternoon there will be a meeting of the Columbia Athletic Club to complete the arrangements for the evening of boxing to be given Wednesday night. In addition to the Nikirk-Scannan and Marshall-Sullivan contests, three other events are being considered. One is a wrestling match between the Stump brothers of this city, which will probably be the opening attraction. This will be followed by the Marshall-Sullivan go, after which a limited round bout will take place between "Buck" Stoelzer and another man or between "Paddy" Core, the clever local boxer, and an unknown not yet secured. Then will come the event of the evening, the twenty round glove contest between Harry Nikirk and Tim Scannan, the Pittsburgh heavy weights. It can be seen that the evening's programme will be one of the best of its character ever seen around Wheeling.

The six round contest between Marshall and Sullivan is sure to be a good one. The two met once before and the decision given at the end of the bout satisfied neither. Both men are anxious to meet and the bout will be a spirited one from beginning to end.

Nikirk, Marshall and the latter's trainer are finishing the former's training at a resort on the South Side. Yesterday afternoon Marshall and the trainer took turns in going up against the big man, and his showing was considered very good. For half an hour Nikirk was kept busy, and though somewhat winded at the finish, his backers and admirers were satisfied at his showing. A number of interested spectators witnessed the big man being put through his work. Nikirk is an ex-Pittsburgh policeman and the Smoky City "cops" to a man are deeply interested in the result of Wednesday's contest. In the delegation that is to come down from Pittsburgh will be a number of guardians of the peace.

The backers of Scannan and Nikirk met to select, if possible, a referee, but they were unable to agree upon anyone. The name of "Jimmy" Dime, who recently defeated Marshall before the Seaside Athletic Club at Coney Island, was brought up in this connection, but was objected to by the Nikirk people. Stakeholder Hornett, of Pittsburgh, states that the referee will probably be selected at the ring side on Wednesday evening.

Last night "Tim" Scannan, who is to meet Nikirk Wednesday night, and "Jerry" Sullivan, who is billed to box Marshall for six rounds, arrived in the city accompanied by Backer James Mason and Trainer William Gurby. They came in over the Pau Handle and are at the McLure, where they will remain until after to-morrow evening's bouts. Manager Mason and "Jerry" Sullivan called at the Intelligencer office soon after their arrival last night. Sully looks to be in excellent condition, and although he is modest in his claims he believes that Marshall will know he has been up against something when the six rounds are over. Mason says Scannan will enter the ring to-morrow night at 180 pounds and that Nikirk will weigh something less than that figure.

Mason, by the way, is a base ball "crank," and has just been selected by the owners of the Pittsburgh club to assist Manager Connie Mack in the management of the Pirates. He thinks the team will be a winner this season. He brings the news that Buckenberger in addition to doing effective work for the St. Louis Browns, is not letting Wheeling's interests go by default. In fact, he has corralled two players who were sought by a club of the Eastern league, but who prefer to play in the team with which "Buck" is connected. Buckenberger says he will be in Wheeling to-morrow to close the question of grounds, and it is now said that inducements have been made that will make the selection of the Schumacher property at the north end of the Island probable.

THE DEBS CASE.

The Hearing of Testimony Begun Yesterday at Chicago—Large Numbers of Witnesses.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The first witness placed on the stand by the government in the Debs conspiracy trial to-day was Wallace Ilco, a reporter for the Chicago Herald, and a member of Local Union No. 356, of the American Railway Union at Pullman. His examination was conducted by Edwin Walker.

Clarence S. Darrow leading the group of attorneys for the defendants.

"Mr. Rice was led by the question of the government counsel to relate the proceedings of the A. R. U. convention of June 13-14 last. The plan of the prosecution being to show that the conspiracy began with that convention and that every step taken by the convention and its officers were a link in the chain of conspiracy.

Mr. Rice said that Mr. Debs' opening speech at the convention, congratulated the union that its organization was the first, not of distinctive class in its character and included all branches of the railroad employees and as such it was destined to overcome and absorb all the others, which were not adapted by the nature of their organization to successfully combat the railroads.

It would become so strong that no corporation could assail it, and it would be able to dictate its own terms.

The Pullman strike and the condition of the workers there, he said, was first brought to the attention of the convention on June 15 by a member of the local unions at that place. Mr. Debs opened the subject on the part of the union in a speech in which he denounced Pullman's corporation as a monstrous monopoly—an octopus—and said the time had come to stop it. Pullman had hoisted the black flag of conspiracy and he (Debs) proposed to sink it and cut off the Pullman cars from the railroads. This speech was received with cheers and with manifestations of great enthusiasm.

A committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Wickes, general manager of the Pullman company, to secure arbitration. The committee reported that Mr. Wickes refused to treat with them and said he had nothing to arbitrate.

On the evening of June 26 the strike was inaugurated at a general mass meeting at the Empire theatre.

Debs at that meeting said the strike was to be a battle to the death, and it meant either the extirpation of the General Managers' Association or that of the union.

Mr. Howard advised the men to take a lesson from the railroads and combine, and that any man who refused to stand by the strikers was a scab.

The witness then related the manner of conducting the strike at the union's office in the Ashland block. A guard stood outside Mr. Debs' private office and no one was admitted during the receipt of telegrams, until after the close of the day's business when reporters were permitted to copy the telegrams.

The government rested on the examination in the case and Mr. Darrow took up the cross-examination for the defense.

This afternoon the examination was continued. The government has subpoenaed about eighty-six witnesses in the case.

RHEUMATISM

for which S.S.S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed.

I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to such an extent that I was unable to move without excruciating pain. I spent hundreds of dollars without relief, but after taking a few bottles of S.S.S. I improved rapidly and am now a well man, completely cured.
